Case No.: 3:19-cv-0690-MMD-WGC

4 Plaintiff,

Order

5 v.

6 SOCIAL SECURITY APPEALS COUNSEL,

7 Defendants.
8

9 Plaintiff filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis (IFP). (ECF No. 1.) Her 10 application indicates she intends to proceed with an action against the Social Security Appeals 11 Council; however, the IFP application was not accompanied by a complaint.

12 On November 18, 2019, the court issued an order advising Plaintiff that federal courts have 13 sole jurisdiction to conduct judicial review of the Social Security Administration's final 14 determination, but only once there is a final determination following the exhaustion of all 15 administrative remedies, and advised her of the process for appeals of Social Security decisions at 16 the administrative level and then proceeding to federal district court. The court then gave Plaintiff
17 30 days to file a complaint, further advising her that the correcting defendant is the Acting 18 Commissioner of Social Security. Plaintiff was warned that if she did not file a complaint within 19 30 days her action would be dismissed.
